

THIRD COLCHESTER LENT TALK

At St James the Less & St Helen Catholic Church
Fridays in Lent at 7.30pm in Cardinal Bourne Hall, Priory Street

22ND March 2019

We are very pleased to hear

Deacon Gary Dench

Deacon at St James the Less and St Helen, Colchester

who will speak on the Lenten theme of ‘Grace-filled Effort’

Gary Dench is a transitional deacon for the Diocese of Brentwood, currently assisting in the parish of St James the Less and St Helen in Colchester. Following his studies at university and some time working in politics, Gary entered the seminary in Rome in 2011. He studied Philosophy and Theology at the Pontifical University of St Thomas Aquinas and the Pontifical Gregorian University. He is now studying for a License degree in Canon Law while preparing for ordination to the priesthood in June this year.

His personal interests include music, current affairs, food and drink, walking, and literature.

All are welcome. Admission is free. There is a pay car park in Priory St., a one-way street from Queen Street.
