NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Week commencing 8th August 2021

^(B)

There are few characters in the Old Testament who are as heroic and powerful as Elijah. However, this Sunday we find him deflated, discouraged and maybe we could even say depressed. After defeating over 400 false prophets at Mount Carmel he then has serious women troubles Queen Jezebel threatens to end his life and he runs away scared. How quickly things can change once a mighty prophet he now seems a puny peasant. Perhaps we are familiar with the ups and downs of life and can be encouraged by this turn of events in which Elijah is encouraged by an Angel and given bread to eat, bread which is a foretaste of the Eucharist food for the journey. Our Christian life is not an endless random series of highs and lows, victories and defeats but rather a journey a pilgrimage we are going somewhere to someone. The Eucharist is not only food for the journey but a foretaste of the destination. Eternal union with God. As Padre Pio beautifully said God is our portion. He is our purpose and in the Eucharist, there is the author of all grace the source of all power. Commenting on prayer he said we must be content to make progress only by degrees. One day we will have legs to run and wings to fly but for now be patient and persevere. May the Eucharist be the food that sustains, nourishes and increases the life of grace within us cultivated by a steady on going on growing prayer life. Fr.Paschal

THE POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR AUGUST: The Church
Let us pray for the Church, that she may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Relaxation of Covid restrictions: There will no longer be restrictions on group sizes for attending communal worship. Our collective challenge, as restrictions are lifting, is to make sure we all continue to keep ourselves and others as safe as possible. Please note the following changes that will be implemented:-

- There will be an expectation that face coverings are worn in the Church, as per the advice of the Government (unless, of course, a person is exempt from doing so).
- As Social distancing rules have changed there will no longer be Church Stewards at Mass guiding people to their seats, this means that people now have the option of choosing where they wish to sit.
- We will retain a section of the church roped off for those who wish to maintain the 2-metre social distancing.
- Weekday Masses have returned to their normal time of 9.30_{am} with Morning Prayer at 9.15_{am}.
- Entrance to Church will be via the main door (no one way system needed)
- The side door will remain open for ventilation and can be used for exiting if wished.
- Communion will remain under one kind.
- Sign of peace will remain not physical
- For the time being there will be no singing at Mass
- We will continue to supply hand sanitiser stations at entrance and side door.
- An Offertory Collection box will be situated at side door; the donation station in church porch is also useable
- There will be no restrictions on the number allowed to attend Funerals, Baptisms and Weddings

Anyone displaying symptoms of Covid-19, or who has reason to believe that they have been in contact with someone who has, should not attend church or volunteer in any capacity until they have received medical advice that it is safe to do so.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: (1Kings 19: 4-8 Ephesians 4: 30-32 5: 1-2 John 6: 41-51) To love as God loves. When we married, we became a flesh and blood sacrament. Today, Jesus says "I am the bread of life". We are 'food and drink' for each other. Let's continue to nourish one another in our marriages, in all those little ways, with tender words and loving actions and become more a 'sign' of God's love for the world.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK: We continue to pray for those parishioners we know who are sick and housebound especially Elizabeth Pace, Hilda Morah, Nicollas and Adam Campbell-Vencarto, Jim Lynas. We pray for all persons who have contracted Covid-19 and their families.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION: The Certificates are ready for all children who celebrated their special day with Fr Chris and Fr Paschal this year. Collection is from the Presbytery.

GIFT AID ENVELOPES: There are still uncollected Gift Aid box sets in porch. Thank you.

RECENTLY DECEASED: Please pray for the repose of the souls of Evelyn Margaret Mackinnon and Randolph Jude Wright who have recently passed away. May they rest in peace. We pray for the comfort of their respective bereaved family and friends. Evelyn's funeral will be held at St Joseph's on 23rd August at 1.00_{pm} and Randolph's service details have changed and his service will be held at Colchester Crematorium at 12.30_{pm}.

CHURCH WELCOMERS: We would like to invite our "Church welcomers" to once again be an active presence at Mass. Please speak to Fr Chris if you are able to assist again. Thank you.

THE SVP WELCOME YOU TO A TEA PARTY ON SATURDAY 21ST AUGUST 2.30-5 PM.
