TWENTY- FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)
WEEK COMMENCING: 15 SEPTEMBER 2019 - PARISH MASS BOOK PAGE136

St. Paul, referring to his life as Saul before his conversion to Christ, describes himself as a blasphemer. He writes elsewhere that as Saul he was a sincerely committed Pharisee, practising his faith with energy and conviction, rather like the eldest son in the Gospel story who never once disobeyed orders. I would suggest that many people in our world today would argue that Saul should have stayed as he was, since he was clearly sincere; that the eldest son was correct in refusing to go in as he was clearly being treated unfairly; and that St. Paul was wrong to use the word, 'blasphemer'. The world would be wrong. It is a common mistake nowadays to prize sincerity over truth. A person who is wrong in their beliefs, no matter how sincerely held, is still wrong, ignorant as St. Paul terms it. If I were trying to walk to a life-saving oasis in the desert and sincerely, but wrongly, believed I was on the right path I would in fact die of thirst. As Jesus himself says, 'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No-one can come to the Father except through me.'

Fr. Chris

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR SEPTEMBER: *The Protection of the Oceans

That politicians, scientists and economists work together to protect the world's seas and oceans.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: *Driving together on the way to heaven. The readings contain a sense of hope. His forgiveness seems never ending and His mercy shows no limits. He never stops 'rescuing' us as the lost sheep of His flock, or 'finding' us, like the widow's mite, when we feel lost within our marriage. God's way of working is like a 'SATNAV', with the destination set as eternal life.
