FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 16th 2017 – Parish Mass Book Page 102

Did you know that the "parable of the sower" is also called "parable of the poor soil" since it aims at the hearers how they should respond to the message sown among them.

We know the story already. The seed is the word of God and we are the field. Our Father, as we all know, is a good giver; very generous indeed! So, when he gives it is for our own good. But the question now is, if we are the field, are we favourably conditioned enough for the good growth of these seeds?

The seed obviously will not grow if we are not good fields since it cannot germinate, so in the process the seeds will go into waste or will be eaten up by the birds looking around for food. Likewise, if the seed falls on stony areas, the roots cannot reach the ground. Whilst if the seed fall on nice and fertile ground surely it will yield and give much fruit in the harvest season.

Now, the end of the parable is answerable by "yes" or "no". Are we a good field or not? God, at the end of time, expects good fruits from us, to get at least a genuine harvest from what he sows. Therefore, let us ask ourselves where are we at this point in time in our Christian vocation? Remember, you and I were appointed to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last....are we bearing such fruit? Amen.

Fr Alex
