THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME [C]

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

WEEK COMMENCING: 17TH NOVEMBER 2019 - PARISH MASS BOOK PAGE 164

The culturally savvy will remember the 1980's Tears for Fears anthem. "Everybody wants to Rule the World" and it's lyrics "Nothing ever lasts forever." The lyrics are nearly true! The things of this world are temporary and finite, no matter how powerful they appear to be. Death, Decay and Destruction. These are inevitable fates of everything earthly. So, the inevitable conclusion for all thinking people is that we cannot live for this world, trusting in its power. So, Faith comes to our rescue that Christ is the answer. His Divine life within us is the only "commodity" on which we can rely with absolute trust. The Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist is an exclusive way in which God's grace is communicated to us as Food and Drink. At every celebration, we pray that God will strengthen in us the power of His life, never lose heart, persevere to the end and enjoy life in Him forever.

Fr. Nixon
