THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER (B)

Week Commencing 18th APRIL 2021

We are, I would hope, reasonably familiar with what Jesus said during his public ministry. It is good to be able to quote the scriptures. Something which perhaps receives less attention is the timing of Jesus' words, when they were spoken. Thus, in Mark's Gospel for example, the first words spoken by Jesus, right at the beginning of his ministry, are a call to repentance. Surely this is significant, Jesus is unlikely have begun with something of secondary importance. Similarly with his Resurrection appearances, when we consider what he chooses to say, given that he would necessarily be succinct. In today's Gospel passage, Jesus tells us what the apostles are to preach, their fundamental task; it again focusses on repentance. Why did Jesus come? To forgive us our sins, which first of all requires repentance.

In times like these let's acknowledge each other, take time out to clarify the issues and remind ourselves of the words of Jesus to the Apostles when they thought it was all over, "Peace be with you!"
