TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

Home Mission Day

Week commencing 19th September 2021

It is generally agreed that there is a turning point in St. Mark's Gospel, the passage we heard last week, in which St. Peter voices his recognition of who Jesus is. Thereafter the Gospel relates Jesus' journey to Jerusalem for his Passion and Death, and Jesus prepares his disciples for the 'scandal' of the Cross. We've just celebrated the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross (14/9), in which we recognise the salvific value of the Cross, its unique role as the means of our redemption. We can also note how the Cross fulfils the passage in Wisdom that we hear this week. If we are to be disciples Jesus tells us to pick up our cross and follow him. Is it not a little curious, therefore, that so often when a person becomes ill people immediately pray for the person to get better? For many people it seems that carrying their cross is not meant to involve pain. We can recall St. Peter's response to Jesus' prophecy of the Passion, 'This must not happen to you', for saying which he was rebuked by Jesus; and the disciples in today's Gospel don't understand either. The Gospel tells us that suffering isn't always bad, discernment is needed, and of course we have the witness of the martyrs who endured suffering and thus entered into the fullness of life. To ponder.....

Fr. Chris

Relaxation of Covid restrictions: There will no longer be restrictions on group sizes for attending communal worship. Our collective challenge, as restrictions are lifting, is to make sure we all continue to keep ourselves and others as safe as possible. Please note the following changes that will be implemented:-

- There will be an expectation that face coverings are worn in the Church, as per the advice of the Government (unless, of course, a person is exempt from doing so).
- As Social distancing rules have changed there will no longer be Church Stewards at Mass guiding people to their seats, this means that people now have the option of choosing where they wish to sit.
- We will retain a section of the church roped off for those who wish to maintain the 2-metre social distancing.
- Weekday Masses have returned to their normal time of 9.30am with Morning Prayer at 9.15am.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: (Wisdom 2:12, 17-20 James 3:16-4:3 Mark 9:30-37) Selfish ambition versus intimacy. The readings illustrate the struggle between peacemakers and those driven by jealousy and selfish ambition - is that us? Together, we can regulate what we do as a couple, knowing each other so intimately. Our consciences can be reinforced by the extent we are prepared to be open and honest with each other. What do we choose?
