SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)
WEEK COMMENCING: 21ST JULY 2019 - PARISH MASS BOOK PAGE 111

The story of Martha and Mary should prompt us to think about our own lives of service and prayer. Most of us are probably more like one or the other. Some people like to be busy and active, but can often feel the anxiety and pressure of having a lot to do. Others are more like Mary, fulfilled by simply being in Christ's presence. But we should not think of them as being in competition. The Church and the world both need Marys and Marthas. Those of us not called to live a contemplative or monastic life should strive to seek a balance between work and prayer. Martha's frustration with Mary is natural – no doubt any parents with children who have household chores to do can confirm that! – but she has much to learn from Mary. Those of us like Martha need to hear the invitation of Christ to listen to his words of comfort and consolation. Those of us who are more like Mary, sitting at the feet of Christ, at some point need to stand up and live the Gospel which we have received.

Fr. Gary

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY: *The Integrity of Justice

---

That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: *Choosing 'the better part' is listening. The Gospel relates the different ways Martha and Mary behaved. We too can fall into such patterns of behaviour. It's human nature to "worry and fret over so many things". Today's Scripture calls us to really listen, then, like Mary, we can choose "the better part". Let us recommit today to deepening our level of listening in our marriage.
