SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (A)

Week Commencing 10th May 2026

Dear friends, it is obvious that we are some distance away from Easter, but the season is still permeated with the Easter message: Christ is risen, we are baptised in him. But today a new dimension of the story comes out: Easter is not complete until the risen Lord has returned to the Father and sent the Holy Spirit. So in the Gospel today we begin two weeks of looking forward to the coming of that 'Spirit of truth' which sets us apart from the world. This is a Spirit of power, which flows through the life of the Church, enabling its members to 'proclaim the Christ' and, dwelling in our hearts, to live in the midst of the world's slander and accusations. When we read the Book of Acts, we discover how the good news of the Gospel spread. The cross of Christ bears lasting fruit. It gives the boldness of assurance. All this did not happen without persecution. There was the death of the deacon Stephen. But nothing and no one can stop the progress of the word of God. The deacon Philip is sent to Samaria, not to hide, but to preach. He accomplishes all this in conjunction with those who entrusted him with this mission. They will come from Jerusalem to authenticate his work. Peace be with you.

Fr Gervase

THE POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR MAY: That everyone might have food. Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17 1 Peter 3:15-18 John 14:15-21) Listen to Jesus within ourselves and within our partner. Jesus is in me and in you! In marriage we are especially called to honour that presence in our spouse every day. There may be times when we hurt each other or take each other for granted, leading to feelings of jealousy and resentment, often to arguments. At times like this the call is for forgiveness, for healing, for affirmation.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK: We continue to pray for those parishioners we know who are sick and housebound especially Margaret E, Jimmy Clarin, Edwina Pastor, J Brian Critchley, Ron & Margaret Griffin, Margaret Hawkins, Valerie Thurston, Grace McCartney, Diana Irvén, Mrs. Maureen McKenna, Peter Wyatt, Hilda Morah, Sean Brennan, Nicollas and Adam Campbell-Vencarto. We also pray for all people who are ill or are in need.

NEXT SECOND COLLECTION: World Communications Day will be on Sunday, 17 May 2026. This year's theme is: Preserving Human Voices and Faces. In today's communication ecosystems, technology influences interactions more than ever before – from algorithms curating news feeds to AI authoring entire texts and conversations. Dicastery for Communication You can read Pope Leo's message <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/pope-leos-message-for-world-communications-day-2026/>
